The Vision of the Future for Prince of Peace

Generosity is directly tied to two things: gratitude for what God has already done, and hope for what God promises yet to do. We give to express our thanks and we give to invest in God's future.

We are convinced that God is calling Prince of Peace to a new exodus, setting us free from debt so that we might be set free for greater mission and ministry.

The No Debt! Know Mission! Campaign was launched in May 2010 to enable Prince of Peace to participate more fully in God's mission by eliminating our debt of $4.45 million. As we do this we will be able to more effectively minister to our disciples, our community, and the world. God has richly blessed us, and we have the opportunity to strengthen our ministry and outreach now and for years to come. No Debt! Know Mission! is a critical pathway into God's vision for us and our future.

Since Prince of Peace Lutheran Church first opened its doors in 1963 thousands of lives have been blessed through faithful mission and ministry.

We've had a remarkable past, and God has an even more remarkable future for us.
